The Care and Cultivation of Campus Life

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14 AT 3:45 P.M.
BREAKOUT SESSION C-04
From IQ to EQ to SQ: The Spiritual Needs of Campus Life
Five Goals

• Strategic Goal 1: Address the pastoral, liturgical, and musical needs of the Hispanic Catholic population in the United States.

• Strategic Goal 2: Sustain and increase membership in the NPM community and ministry.
• Strategic Goal 3: Increase NPM focus on youth and young adults who can and do contribute to liturgical and music ministry in the U.S.

The Center for the Study of Faith and Culture seeks to understand and effect the relationship between the worldview of Catholic faith and culture. Its programmatic offerings give special emphasis to the formation of community leadership that will be capable of ongoing reflection and action.

The Center for Faith and Culture is recognized by the Roman Curia Pontifical Council for Culture and is listed in the Pontificium Consilium De Cultura, Catholic Cultural Centres.
• Strategic Goal 5: Find new financial resources and strengthen existing ones to support the mission and work of NPM in a challenging economy.

Without you, Campus Ministry doesn't have a prayer.

You are invited to compose a prayer for the NEW
Notre Dame Student Book of Prayers!

Note deadline for submitting is August 15, 2003.

You may be familiar with The Day Awaits published in 1997, the most recent edition in a long line of Notre Dame prayer books. Campus Ministry is now in the process of collecting prayers for a new edition of the Notre Dame Student Book of Prayers. It is our hope that this new prayer book will reflect the changes in our campus environment and address the needs of students in these contemporary times. We are looking for selections that will reflect the words, thoughts and prayers of members of the Notre Dame family—students, faculty and staff members, administrators, employees, alumni.

Once again, we hope to tap into the well spring of faith and spirituality that runs deep in the lives of those who work and study here.

Prayer Text:
(In plain text)
Be Christ for Others.
As a worshipping community we are ALL called to actively participate in our liturgies through song, prayer, silence, and ritual action. Some are called to specific liturgical ministries to serve as greeters, lectors, ministers of communion, liturgical assistants, music ministers, and to assume other roles for the liturgies at St John’s as well as at the special Creighton University liturgies.

LIFE AND DIGNITY OF THE HUMAN PERSON

All people are created in the image of God and thus, all human life, from conception to natural death, is sacred. Through the mystery of Christ, we become children of the Father and temples of the Holy Spirit. God’s love for all is the foundation of human dignity. The basic dignity that each person possesses comes from God; therefore all forms of discrimination are always wrong. People take precedence over things and structures. Systems are meant to serve people. And people are meant to serve and care for one another. Scripture tells us repeatedly of God’s love for us. We are called to see every person through the eyes of God and to love them because God loved them (and us) first.
Genesis 1:26-31 God created man and woman in his image.

Deuteronomy 10:17-19 God loves the orphan, the widow, and the stranger. You should too.

Proverbs 22:2 The Lord is the maker of both rich and poor.

Luke 10:25-37 The good Samaritan recognized the dignity in the other and cared for his life.

John 4:1-42 Jesus broke with societal and religious customs to honor the dignity of the Samaritan woman.

Romans 12: 9-18 Love one another, contribute to the needs of others, live peaceably with all.

1 Corinthians 3:16 You are holy, for you are God’s temple and God dwells in you.

Galatians 3:27-28 All Christians are one in Christ Jesus.

James 2:1-8 Honor the poor.

1 John 3: 1-2 See what love the Father has for us, that we should be called Children of God.

1 John 4:7-12 Let us love one another because love is from God.

The St. Francis Pledge
I/We Pledge to:
PRAY and reflect on the duty to care for God’s Creation and protect the poor and vulnerable.
LEARN about and educate others on the causes and moral dimensions of climate change.
ASSESS how we-as individuals and in our families, parishes and other affiliations- contribute to climate change by our own energy use, consumption, waste, etc.
ACT to change our choices and behaviors to reduce the ways we contribute to climate change.
ADVOCATE for Catholic principles and priorities in climate change discussions and decisions, especially as they impact those who are poor and vulnerable.
"Authentic leaders in every setting--from families to nation states--aim at liberating the heart, their own and others, so that its power can liberate the world. Consciousness precedes Being. The salvation of the world lies nowhere else but in the human heart."

Sung Prayer
Song is not an interruption to prayer, song is the best kind of prayer. St Augustine said: “The one who sings once, prays twice.” Worship has always included song. The psalms are songs and most of what we sing now has the Book of Psalms as its source. Our external response in song is only one dimension of our participation. Perhaps even more important is uniting oneself to what is being sung so we can together raise our thoughts to God. Even if we cannot sing (for whatever reason) we should be following the words of our song prayer so we are united as one family in our praise of God.
