NPM NATIONAL HYBRID CONVENTION

General Information

What You Need to Know

- The 2021 NPM National Convention is a hybrid convention with sessions offered both virtually and in-person. Both options (virtual and in-person) will include:
  - All Plenum and MEGA addresses
  - All Breakout and Keychange sessions (some Breakout sessions will be available within 24-48 hours after taking place in-person)
  - All Product Showcases
- In-person registrations will include “lagniappe” which is the New Orleans way of saying “something extra.”

NOTE: Should your circumstances change due to COVID-19 concerns, no change fee will apply to switch your registration from virtual to in-person, or vice versa. Please see “Cancellation Policy” for more information. Deadline for any change in registration is July 1, 2021.

- The Convention Program will be available on our app, virtual platform and as an electronic (PDF) ONLY this year. We will distribute the program electronically in advance and you may choose to print out a physical copy for your use.

- Scholarship assistance is available for pastoral musicians in need. Information is available at npm.org.
- Convention T-shirts and other memorabilia will be available to order online. Beginning June 1, 2021, you will find the link on the npm.org website. They will be shipped directly to you. They will not be available on-site.
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): If under the ADA you require auxiliary aids or services, please contact at NPMsing@npm.org, or call 240-247-3000, or 1-855-207-0293.

Payment and Deadlines

- Payment is due at time of registration.
- On-line registration available through July 27. Regular registration available on-site July 27-30. Please check final convention schedule on website for times.
- All participants, either virtual or on-site, will have access to the virtual platform through September 30.
- Any 2020 convention credits will be applied to 2021 registration fees automatically during the online registration process.
